

CHAMBER MUSIC SOCIETY PALM BEACH ANNOUNCES NEW LEADERSHIP

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Palm Beach, FL - October 7, 2019 — The Chamber Music Society of Palm Beach announced today that they have appointed Douglas C. Evans as Executive Director and Arnaud Sussmann as Artistic Director. Entering their 7th Season of bringing the leading chamber music artists from New York and around the world to South Florida, Founder and Board Chair Vicki Kellogg stated “As we move into a new phase of unprecedented growth, we secured two world class leaders to take our programs and education initiatives to a higher level. The entire board is excited to work with these two dynamic arts professionals as together we reach even more audiences in Palm Beach and beyond”. Evans, who returns to Palm Beach after helming the Fashion Scholarship Fund in New York City was the Founding President of Classical South Florida Radio and serves as Chairman of The World Affairs Council of Palm Beach. Sussmann, an award-winning violinist has appeared as a soloist and chamber musician in concerts all over the world as well as Palm Beach. “I am thrilled to be joining such a vibrant organization! I look forward to working with Doug Evans and the Board as we launch our 7th Season and expand our programs throughout Palm Beach County”. The 2019-2020 will be performed at Holy Trinity Episcopal Church and The Norton Museum in West Palm Beach. Artists this year include Orion Weiss, The Ehnes, Escher, Dover and Miró Quartets as well as Benjamin Beilman, Anthony McGill, Anne Marie-McDermott and Paul Neubauer.
